My dear Mr Page.

I did not in the least slight the article on the forests I sent you a few days ago. But just after I had finished it I had to leave home & therefore sent it off in haste. My wife in reading it over said she thought there was a line or two that might run a reputation about glaciers. I can hardly think this is so.
But you may strike it out if it seems so to you. It is on the 8th or 6th page. Also you may strike out as you like any part of the statistical stuff in the middle of the thing, but don't touch the head & tail of it. Most of the particular information in the body of the article relating to forestry abroad & the present condition of the forests in a legal view were obtained from Vol. 6, No 3 of the publications of the American Economic Association of Baltimore Md. & should be referred to in a footnote.

^{not necessary}
I am now trying to sketch the National Parks. Ever Yours Truly
John Muir ^{WHP}
